

Joan Poppino

Poppino earns 4-H's highest service honor

University of Idaho Extension and Boundary County 4-H has selected Joan Poppino as the 2007 Idaho 4-H Distinguished Service award recipient.

The Distinguished Service award is the highest honor that can be conveyed upon a 4-H volunteer in Idaho. Poppino is an exemplary illustration of the type of individuals 4-H has come to rely upon.

She is a 4-H ambassador and has dedicated 29 years of service to 4-H. Poppino has led a variety of projects ranging from Entomology to Quilting.

In addition, she has held a variety of committee positions at the District, State, and Regional levels such as District I Representative for the Idaho State Leader's Association and co-chair for the Western Regional Leader's Forum planning committee.
